

PATHOLOGY & LABORATORY MEDICINE CLINICAL ADVANCEMENT PROGRAM

Professional Medical Technologist

- * Provides leadership and support for other technologists within their department.
- * Serves as a resource for other technologists.
- * Assumes responsibility for a variety of highly complex, technically demanding clinical assays.
- * Interprets the validity of assay results using professional judgement based on knowledge of physiological systems and principles of instrumentation and quality assurance.
- * Combines laboratory computer experience with experience in specimen processing.
- * Maintains laboratory records and computer files.

Senior Medical Technologist

- * Performs a variety of routine and special laboratory tests that focus on accurate and complete results.
- * Exercises professional judgement in assessment and acceptability of results.
- * Oversees quality control testing according to established protocol.
- * Executes any corrective action.

Laboratory Technologist

- * Performs a variety of routine and special laboratory tests.
- * Supports efforts of the Professional and Senior Medical Technologists.
- * Exercises professional judgement in determining the acceptability of results.
- * Performs other duties as assigned.