Department of Medicine Grand Rounds
Distinguished Lecture Series

Friday, September 27, 2019
“State of the Department Address”
Michael S. Parmacek, MD
Frank Wister Thomas Professor of Medicine
Chair, Department of Medicine
Penn Medicine

Friday, October 18, 2019
“Can We Improve the Output of Academic Medicine?”
S. Claiborne Johnston, MD, PhD
Dean, Dell Medical School
Vice President for Medical Affairs
Frank and Charmaine Denius Distinguished Dean’s Chair in Medical Leadership

Friday, November 22, 2019
“Sickle Cell Anemia: Past, Present, and Future”
Griffin P. Rodgers, MD, MACP
Director, National Institute of Diabetes and Digestive and Kidney Diseases
Chief, Molecular and Clinical Hematology Branch, NHLBI

Friday, December 13, 2019
“Ebola Update 2019: Lessons from West Africa”
Paul E. Farmer, MD, PhD
Kolokotrones University Professor of Global Health and Social Medicine
Harvard Medical School

Friday January 31, 2020
“Exploiting the Ape Precursors of HIV-1 for AIDS Vaccine Design”
Beatrice Hahn, MD
Professor of Medicine and Microbiology
Perelman School of Medicine
Penn Medicine

Friday, February 28, 2020
“From Genes and Genomes to Biology and Health”
Richard P. Lifton, MD, PhD
President, Rockefeller University

Friday, March 27, 2020
“The iCOMPARE Study: Large Scale Policy Research In Resident Duty Hours”
Lisa M. Bellini, MD, MACP
Senior Vice Dean for Academic Affairs
David Asch, MD, MBA
John Morgan Professor of Medicine, Medical Ethics and Health Policy
Penn Medicine

Friday, May 29, 2020
“HIV and the Kidney: From HIV-Associated Nephropathy to Reservoir”
Mary Klotman, MD
Dean, Duke University School of Medicine
Vice Chancellor of Health Affairs

Friday, June 12, 2020
“Technology in Medicine: Co-Producing Health at Scale”
Vivian Lee, MD, PhD, MBA
Verily Corporation

All lectures begin at 12:00 PM in the Rubenstein Auditorium in the Smilow Building

Ford additional information, please contact:
Lise.Ford@pennmedicine.upenn.edu/215-614-0904